

Exhibit D

Sec. 40-430. - Violations as nuisance; enforcement; relief.

Any building or structure which is erected, altered or converted, or any use of a premises which, when begun, violated the terms of this chapter or the ordinance repealed upon enactment of the ordinance from which this chapter is derived (whichever ordinance was then effective), is declared to be a nuisance. Upon request of the village, any court having jurisdiction may order such nuisance abated, and the owner or other person in charge of such building, structure or premises adjudged guilty of maintaining a nuisance, and may order such other relief as equity and good conscience may require.
